Notes From Your Intergroup Chair ...

“Our Twelfth Step – carrying the message – is the basic service that the A.A. Fellowship gives; this is our principal aim and the main reason for our existence. Therefore, A.A. is more than a set of principles; it is a society of alcoholics in action. We must carry the message, else we ourselves can wither and those who haven’t been given the truth may die.”
(The A.A. Service Manual, p. S1)

The key word is action. The truth is that Alcoholics Anonymous needs each and every sober alcoholic to be of service, so that those who need the message of A.A. will get it when they reach out for help.

Is your group in action? Does each and every group have the responsibility to carry that message of love and service? Is it only the few groups who send a member to Intergroup that care about the alcoholic who needs help?

I look forward to seeing you at Intergroup!

In Service,
Mike C.

A Declaration of Unity

This we owe to

A.A.'s future:

To place our common welfare

first,

To keep our fellowship

For on A.A.

unity depend

our lives,

And the lives of those to come.

*To those now in its fold,
Alcoholics Anonymous has made the difference between misery and sobriety, and often the difference between life and death.*

The Chinese Farmer

Once there was a poor Chinese farmer who had one child, a son. They did not own the land they farmed, but sharecropped and gave the majority of the crop to the landowner. The only possession of any worth this farmer owned was the horse that plowed the fields for them.

One day when the farmer woke he saw that his only possession, his horse, had run away in the night. All his neighbors came by and told him how bad it was that he had lost his horse. But his only reply was "I don't know if it is a bad thing or a good thing".

All his neighbors decided he was a little bit crazy...his only possession gone and he didn't know if it was good or bad!

Two days later when the farmer awoke he saw that his horse had come back. And not only had his horse returned, but he had brought with him a dozen wild horses and led them right into the corral.

Now all his neighbors came and joyfully told the poor farmer how good this was. But his only reply was "I don't know if it is a bad thing or a good thing".

Once again his neighbors decided that he was a little bit crazy...with these new horses he was now the richest man in the valley...and he didn't know if it was good or bad!

The next day when his only son was trying to tame one of the wild horses he was thrown and crippled his leg. All his neighbors told the farmer what a bad thing this was...his only son crippled and not able to help with the harvest. Again the poor farmer said "I don't know if it is a bad thing or a good thing".

All the neighbors could do was shake their heads once again.

Two days later the Red Army came through the valley, forcing all the young men of fighting age to serve on the front line of the war where most of them would die. The son of the poor farmer was not taken though due to his crippled leg.

The moral I can learn from this story is that I need to keep an open mind and not judge something to be good or bad when it happens in my life. Instead I can accept whatever the situation is as what it is supposed to be right now.

My experience, just like the Chinese farmer, is that many of my "problems" have become assets in my life and in the lives of those around me. I have found that staying solution oriented rather than problem oriented has become key in my life. As Bill W wrote in our Basic Text "It works – it really does."

Mike C.

I am responsible, when anyone, anywhere reaches out for help, I want the hand of AA always to be there: and for that I am responsible.

God grant me the Serenity to accept the things I cannot change, Courage to change the things I can, and Wisdom to know the difference.

A Note From Your H & I Chair

The H&I work shop scheduled for Sept. 20Th 2008 has been canceled. H&I has agreed to put its resources into the upcoming service roundup in October of this year being sponsored by District 6. This will be a great opportunity for all to come out and learn what opportunities are available within the service structure of Alcoholics Anonymous within District 6. As Chair of H&I I would encourage all to attend and to bring with you the sponsees that you are working with. Service within AA has inherently been like a professional football game. There is usually 20,000 spectators badly in need of exercise watching 22 players badly in need of rest!!!! So to all you spectators out there in District 6 - come down out of the bleachers and get in the game! It could save your life or the life of another suffering alcoholic. With love and respect I thank you for the opportunity to serve.

Ken T.
H&I chairman

A Note From Your Newsletter Editor

My time as your newsletter editor is almost done. I have enjoyed this service position and am grateful to have had it. It has helped me stay sober and I hope it has been a useful tool in your sobriety as well.

The position of Intergroup Newsletter Editor, now vacant, should hopefully be filled at our Intergroup meeting to be held on Thursday, October 2nd at 6:30 pm upstairs in Serenity Hall. I believe many other Intergroup positions have also become vacant and are in need of service-minded volunteers to fill them. Please come to the October Intergroup meeting and volunteer to help out. Its important work.

I want to say a big thank you to Ed G. for turning the position over to me in the first place. Before me, Ed did our newsletter very nicely for over 15 years and his help, especially early on was crucial in me being able to do this thing at all. I'd also like to thank those groups and group reps etc. who have been involved in helping to get info to me for the newsletter. I only wish more were as committed to this as you have been. Thanks also to all those who served with me in Intergroup. It truly has been an absolute pleasure! Most importantly, I want to thank Mike C., our Intergroup Chair, for all the help and encouragement he has given me over my time as editor. I could not, and probably would not have done this job without his assistance and perseverance. Thank you so very much Mike! I admire those who serve Alcoholics Anonymous.

Well that's about it. I am deeply grateful to you all for having allowed me this opportunity to serve. Thanks and God bless!

Why Have a Home Group?

In a recent letter to a member of the Fellowship, a member of the General Service Office staff referred to the home group as the heartbeat of AA. That made a big impression on me, and I believe that just as surely as we are aware of, sensitive to, and in need of our own heartbeat, each of us needs a home group.

It all began in the home group, didn't it? Not all of us readily identified that mysterious group of people who were trying to help us get sober as our home group. In fact, I am painfully aware that the commitment to become a part of anything escapes many in the early stages of recovery. Most members of the Fellowship will never have the rewarding experience of attending a General Service Conference. Only a few are even touched by our area assemblies, state and national conventions, and other functions which bring members together from many home groups. Even the district functions might be attended by only a small portion of the membership of the groups involved. To many, their AA is only the home group. If this is so, what should the home group be to the member, and why should a member have a home group?

When we took those first faltering steps to recovery, many of us would have stumbled and fallen once again if we had to make what was to be a miraculous change by ourselves. In my case, the first rays of hope came from those sometimes loving, sometimes cantankerous old geezers who sat around the table in my hometown. A long time before I believed, or even heard, what they told me, I began thinking there might be a chance simply because I thought if they could do it, so could I.

The first slogans I heard came from them. Later, when I heard the same things from speakers at a convention, I thought it was so wise; but it was months before I realized that I first heard those thoughts from the fat little guy who I thought was so windy and who eventually became my sponsor. In fact, after I got into service work, I thought I needed to go to conventions, assemblies, and forums to get my batteries recharged because things were so dull and routine in my home group.

Now I know that it's not the wonderful people I've met from throughout these great lands who have helped keep me sober most of the time, but those wonderful people sitting around the table in my hometown who loved me when I could not love, who waited for me to quit lying, who tolerated me when I would be part of nothing, and who never asked me to leave when I was obnoxious. Because of their love and patience, I was able finally to get outside of myself and make some sort of commitment to the group.

It seems to me that, in the beginning, a home group is all most of us can possibly handle. It's where we first find a sponsor, where someone first sees that we get a Big Book, where we first see the Steps on the wall, where we learn again to pray, and where we first begin to recover. (Remember the heartbeat?) But most of all, because of the trust that develops through the meetings of a home group, it is where we might first begin to care about someone else so that we might eventually begin to love again, both in AA and among our friends and family. It is where we first learn to take responsibility so that we might eventually take responsibility for our lives. In my case, that began with the simple chore of cleaning out ashtrays. (How wise that they knew I could do no more!) It was there we learned to do Twelfth Step work so that we could eventually pass on to others what was so freely given to us, thereby assuring the very future and survival of the Fellowship. It was there we first learned about the rest of the Fellowship, and someone began answering the questions about all the mysteries of what makes the whole thing work.

Oh yes, the home group is the heartbeat of the Fellowship. There are many reasons why the Fellowship needs these wonderful groups, and there are many reasons why the groups need each and every member running through their life veins. But most important, we need our home groups. That's where it all began, and it's where it will all end for us. Yes, all of us have also had the job of burying some of those people who passed the recovery program on to each of us.

With this week at the Conference, this phase of my service to the Fellowship, of paying back a small measure of my gratitude, begins to wind down. What will I do now? If I am very, very lucky, those who are doing such a marvelous job of serving the Fellowship in my home group might, just might, allow me to make coffee next week and maybe even talk to a drunk.

Step 9 / Tradition 9 / Concept IX

Step 9 - Made direct amends to such people wherever possible, except when to do so would injure them or others.

If we are painstaking about this phase of our development, we will be amazed before we are half way through. We are going to know a new freedom and a new happiness. We will not regret the past nor wish to shut the door on it. We will comprehend the word serenity and we will know peace. No matter how far down the scale we have gone, we will see how our experience can benefit others. That feeling of uselessness and self-pity will disappear. We will lose interest in selfish things and gain interest in our fellows. Self-seeking will slip away. Our whole attitude and outlook upon life will change. Fear of people and of economic insecurity will leave us. We will intuitively know how to handle situations which used to baffle us. We will suddenly realize that God is doing for us what we could not do for ourselves.

Are these extravagant promises? We think not. They are being fulfilled among us - sometimes quickly, sometimes slowly. They will always materialize if we work for them.

Alcoholics Anonymous (Big Book) pages 83-84

Tradition 9 - A.A., as such, ought never be organized; but we may create service boards or committees directly responsible to those they serve.

The Long Form

Each A.A. group needs the least possible organization. Rotating leadership is the best. The small group may elect its Secretary, the large group its Rotating Committee, and the groups of a large Metropolitan area their Central or Intergroup Committee, which often employs a full-time Secretary. The trustees of the General Service Board are, in effect, our A.A. General Service Committee. They are the custodians of our A.A. Tradition and the receivers of voluntary A.A. contributions by which we maintain our A.A. General Service Office at New York. They are authorized by the groups to handle our over-all public relations and they guarantee the integrity of our principle newspaper, "The A.A. Grapevine." All such representatives are to be guided in the spirit of service, for true leaders in A.A. are but trusted and experienced servants of the whole. They derive no real authority from their titles; they do not govern. Universal respect is the key to their usefulness.

Concept IX - Good service leadership at all levels is indispensable for our future functioning and safety. Primary world service leadership, once exercised by the founders, must necessarily be assumed by the trustees.
